CHAPTER 2

ACTS OR OMISSIONS BY REGISTERED NURSES CONSTITUTING IMPROPER CONDUCT OR MISCONDUCT

2. The following acts or omissions by a registered nurse, as set out in this Chapter, shall constitute improper conduct or misconduct in respect of which the Board may conduct inquiries and take disciplinary steps in terms of Part V of the Act:

- (a) Omitting or neglecting to carry out such acts relating to monitoring, diagnosing, treatment, prescription, collaboration, referral, co-ordination and patient advocacy as the scope of the profession of a registered nurse requires;
- (b) omitting or neglecting to maintain the health status of a patient under his or her care or charge, or to protect the name, person and possessions of that patient, through -
 - (i) the correct identification of the patient;
 - (ii) the determination of the health status of the patient and the physiological responses of the body to disease conditions, trauma and stress;
 - (iii) the correct administration of treatment, medication and care;
 - (iv) the prevention of accidents, injury or other trauma;
 - (v) the prevention of infection and of the spread of infection;
 - (vi) the checking of all forms of diagnostic and therapeutic interventions for the individual;
 - (vii) the specific care and treatment of the seriously ill patient, the disturbed patient, the confused patient, the aged patient, infant and children patients, the unconscious patient, the patient with communication problems and the vulnerable and high-risk patient; and
 - (viii) the monitoring of all vital signs of the patient concerned;
- (c) omitting or neglecting to keep clear and accurate records of all actions which he or she performs in connection with a patient;
- (d) contravenes section 27(1)(b), (2)(b) or (c) or (3) of the Act;

(e) advertising -

- (i) or permitting such advertisement, for professional gain, other than by indicating his or her name, address, telephone number, hours of attendance and registered qualification; or
- (ii) of any other person, whether or not such person is registered or enrolled under the Act or is a practitioner, or any product, business, institution or organisation of any nature, for any purpose and in any way, or permitting his or her name or photograph, whether or not he or she is in uniform, to be used in such advertisement, but the actions by a registered nurse, as set out in the Appendix to these rules shall not constitute advertising;

(f) the use by a registered nurse who is in private practice of a name plate at his or her permanent consulting rooms or permanent residence, which exceeds 360 mm x 210 mm in size and which bear other particulars in addition to his or her -

- (i) title, initials and surname;
- (ii) registered profession and field of practice;
- (iii) professional qualifications or additional qualifications registered by him or her as such or as specialities;
- (iv) telephone numbers; and
- (v) hours of consultation,

but if a registered nurse prefers not to have particulars concerning telephone numbers and hours of consultation to be indicated on a name plate containing the particulars referred to in this paragraph, a separate plate, not exceeding 360 mm x 210 mm in size, with the telephone numbers and hours of consultation concerned, may be affixed directly below such name plate;

- (g) in the case of an itinerant practice, the use of a name plate which exceeds the size stipulated in paragraph (f) and which bear other particulars than those referred to in that paragraph, and the days and hours of consultation when he or she will be available at his or her consulting rooms, may be indicated on a separate plate or surface, not exceeding 360 mm x 210 mm in size;
- (h) the use of more than one name plate at each entrance to a building in which his or her consulting rooms are situated and on or next to the door of such consulting rooms, but -
 - (i) a name plate may, with the prior approval of the Board, be affixed to an outer wall or pillar of the building concerned if such building does not have suitable facilities for a name plate to be affixed to it, and the particulars stipulated in paragraph (f) may, with the prior approval of the Board, where such building has no such facilities for a name plate to be affixed to it, be affixed in a framed area of 360 mm x 210 mm on a glass window as close as possible to the entrance of the building in which the consulting rooms are situated;

- (ii) if facilities exist in the entrance hall or on the ground floor of a building in which the consulting rooms of a registered nurse are situated to indicate the names of tenants, the title, initials, surname and profession of the registered nurse may be indicated in such places;
 - (iii) a plate with the initials and surname of a registered nurse and a direction indicator on it may be displayed in the corridor of the floor where the consulting rooms of that nurse are situated;
- (i) If -
- (i) a registered nurse has taken over the practice of another registered nurse; or
 - (ii) a partner, a shareholder of a company or a member of a close corporation dies or retires, the display of the name plate of the predecessor, the deceased or the retired partner, shareholder or member, for more than 12 months after the date of the take over, death or retirement, and failure by the person who has taken over the practice to display his or her name during the period referred to in this paragraph;

- (j) if a registered nurse has moved to consulting rooms at a new address, the display of a notice to this effect at the previous address, mentioning the new address of his or her consulting rooms, for more than 12 months from the date of so moving;
- (k) causing or permitting the appearance of any other information on professional stationery and business cards, apart from -
 - (i) the name of the registered nurse and partner, shareholder of a company or member of a close corporation, if any;
 - (ii) the registered profession, field of practice and abbreviations in respect of qualifications registered by the Board;
 - (iii) addresses and telephone numbers; and
 - (iv) hours of consultation.
- (l) canvassing or touting for patients for himself or herself or for any other person, whether personally or through an agent, or in any other manner;

- (m) carrying on of an itinerant practice for less than one month, at a place where a registered nurse does not render a complete and satisfactory service to his or her patients in such practice on a regular basis and which place is not similar to the place where the registered nurse carries on his or her main practice;
- (n) accepting or insisting on any commission or remuneration, financial or otherwise, from manufacturers of, or dealers in, medicine, remedies or any equipment, apparatus, instrument, appliance or material which is used in the course of practice of a registered nurse or prescribed to patients;
- (o) paying or giving commission or remuneration to any person, financial or otherwise, or the offering of anything to any person for the recommendation of patients;
- (p) accepting commission or remuneration, financial or otherwise, from any person for the recommendation of patients;
- (q) sharing of fees collected for a service, with any person other than a partner, a shareholder of a company or a member of a close corporation, unless the sharing is commensurate with the extent of the other person's participation in the rendering of that service;
- (r) charging higher fees for professional services rendered than the fees prescribed in terms of the Act;
- (s) issuing a certificate of sickness when a registered nurse is not convinced, from his or her personal observation or from what the patient has communicated to him or her, that the facts stated in that certificate are correct, and where a certificate of sickness is issued only on the grounds of the communication of a patient or another person the registered nurse shall specifically mention that fact in the certificate;
- (t) divulging information concerning a patient, which information has become known to a registered nurse in his or her professional capacity, but this paragraph shall not apply if the information is made known -
 - (i) with the explicit consent, in writing, of a patient who is of age, of the parent or guardian of a patient who is a minor, or of the surviving spouse or child who is of age, or of a patient who is deceased;
 - (ii) on the instruction of a court of law or where a registered nurse is lawfully bound to make that information known;
 - (iii) in the exclusive interest of a patient who is not able to, or is not capable of, granting permission; or
 - (iv) in a professional consultation with anybody involved in the treatment of the patient or, in the exclusive interest of the patient, with any other person;

- (u) applying or using in a practice -
 - (i) any form of treatment, apparatus or process which is secret or claimed to be secret;
 - (ii) any apparatus which upon inspection by the Board does not prove to be capable of fulfilling the claim made in respect of it; or
 - (iii) diagnostic and treatment methods which do not comply with the accepted standards as determined by the Board;
- (v) impeding a patient, or a person properly acting on behalf of a patient, who desires to obtain the advice of, or treatment by, a practitioner, from consulting that practitioner;
- (w) performing, except in a case of emergency, an act which does not pertain to his or her registered profession or for which he or she has inadequate training or experience;
- (x) using consulting rooms connected to or with a corridor to premises or portion of premises where another business, trade, work or profession different from the profession in which he or she is registered in terms of the Act, is practised or carried on, but the entrance and corridors of a public building in which his or her consulting rooms are situated, or a connection which may not be used by patients, shall not be deemed to be an unauthorised connection or thoroughfare;
- (y) Practising or conducting from the consulting rooms of a registered nurse any business, trade, work or profession other than the profession in which he or she is registered in terms of the Act, except with the consent, in writing, of the Board and subject to such conditions as the Board may determine;
- (z) sharing consulting rooms with someone other than a person referred to in paragraph (cc), without the consent in writing of the Board;
- (aa) displaying, subject to paragraph (bb), in the consulting rooms of a registered nurse, other certificates apart from -
 - (i) certificates, diplomas and degrees which have a bearing on the profession in which he or she is registered; and
 - (ii) membership certificates of professional associations with which he or she is affiliated;
- (bb) omitting or neglecting to display clearly in the consulting rooms of a registered nurse the registration certificate issued to him or her in terms of the Act;
- (cc) entering into a partnership, incorporating a company or establishing a close corporation or where such partnership, company or close corporation already exists at the coming into effect of these rules, maintaining such partnership, company or close corporation, with a person who is not -

- (i) registered or enrolled under the Act; or
 - (ii) registered under any other Act in respect of a profession which is approved by the Board in the public interest and with consideration of professional ethics, as an acceptable profession for the purpose of partnership, incorporation of a company or establishment of a close corporation;
- (dd) unilaterally breaking, without the approval of the other party, a contract of service into which he or she has entered;
- (ee) refusing, omitting or neglecting to execute any lawful duties for which he or she has been employed;
- (ff) supporting or assisting any person in any way in illegal practice or action;
- (gg) employing of any person who is not registered or enrolled in terms of the Act, to perform nursing acts, but this paragraph shall not apply in an emergency;
- (hh) tendering for a full-time, part-time or any other kind of nursing appointment;
- (ii) taking the place of another nurse or midwife who is in charge of a case in respect of which he or she acted together with or on behalf of that nurse or midwife, without the consent of that nurse or midwife, unless the consent is unreasonably refused or unless no other nursing, midwifery or medical assistance is available;
- (jj) taking over a case of another nurse or midwife without first being convinced that the patient or the person in charge of the case has notified the nurse or the midwife who was originally in charge of the case that he or she no longer requires his or her services;
- (kk) in accordance with the exigencies of the circumstances and the seriousness of the condition of a patient -
- (i) neglecting to refer the patient for medical care where such care is beyond the scope of practice of the nurse and delaying that referral;
 - (ii) neglecting to do what he or she can do to save a life, to arrest deterioration in the health status of the patient, to prevent deformity or to reduce pain and suffering;
 - (iii) in circumstances where the patient is in the care of a registered nurse, but the control over the medical treatment of that patient rests with any person other than that nurse, neglecting to execute without reasonable grounds any verbal or written prescriptions or any request made to that nurse by that person with regard to the medical treatment of that patient, or where the prescription or request is not executed, to inform that person of the non-execution as soon as practically possible;

- (ll) unjustified casting of reflections, explicitly or by implication, upon the probity or professional reputation, skill, knowledge, service or qualifications of any person registered or enrolled under the Act or any practitioner;
- (mm) performing any act which is calculated to -
 - (i) prevent the Board, a committee of the Board or the secretary of the Board from performing a duty which may be lawfully performed by the Board, the committee or the secretary; or
 - (ii) bring the Board or any member or official of the Board into contempt of discredit, unless the act concerned is the truth and is in the public interest;
- (nn) permitting a registered nurse to be exploited in a manner detrimental to the public or professional interest;
- (oo) omitting or neglecting to notify the Board that he or she acquires, possesses, uses or supplies scheduled substances in accordance with the Medicines and Related Substances Control Act, 1965 (Act No. 101 of 1965);
- (pp) omitting or neglecting to submit proof to the Board that he or she has followed a programme approved by the Board with regard to the acquisition, possession, use or supply of scheduled substances permitted in his or her practice in accordance with the provisions of the Medicines and Related Substances Control Act, 1965 (Act No. 101 of 1965); or
- (qq) recovering, where he or she conducts a private practice, more money from a patient than the costs involved in the purchase and shelving of the scheduled substances concerned plus interest on capital outlay, not exceeding the prime lending rate as determined by the Bank of Namibia.

- (e) such other information as the Board may reasonably require; and
- (f) an application fee of N$30 for each qualification in respect of which registration is applied for, which fee shall under no circumstances be refundable.

(2) The Board may require -

- (a) proof of the authenticity and validity of any document accompanying an application submitted to it;
- (b) if any document so submitted to it is not in the English language, that the original document be accompanied by a sworn translation thereof in that language.

(3) A certificate of registration substantially in the form as set out in Annexure B shall, upon payment of a fee of N$15 for each qualification in respect of which an application for registration has been granted, be issued to every person who has been registered as a nurse or a midwife in terms of section 13(3) of the Act.

Qualifications which entitle holder thereof to registration

3. The qualifications contemplated in section 18(1) of the Act which, when held singly or conjointly with any other qualification, shall entitle the holder thereof to registration in the nursing or midwifery profession are as set out in Annexure C.

Registration of additional qualifications

4. (1) The provisions of regulation 2(1), excluding paragraph (d) thereof, and of regulation 2(2), shall apply mutatis mutandis in relation to an application for the registration of each additional qualification contemplated in section 25 of the Act, except that the application shall be submitted to the Board on a form similar to the form contained in Annexure D.

(2) A certificate of registration of an additional qualification substantially in the form as set out in Annexure E shall, upon payment of a fee of N$15 for each additional qualification in respect of which an application for registration has been granted, be issued to every person in respect of whom an additional qualification has been registered.

Particulars to be entered in registers

5. The following particulars shall, in respect of every registered nurse and registered midwife, be entered in the appropriate register in terms of section 14(1)(a) of the Act:

- (a) Full names;
- (b) sex;
- (c) residential address;
- (d) date of registration;
- (e) qualification registered; and
- (f) date on which such qualification was obtained.

Restoration of names to registers

6. (1) An application for the restoration of the name of a registered nurse or registered midwife to the appropriate register shall be submitted to the Board on a form similar to the form contained in Annexure F, containing the required information, and shall be accompanied by -

- (a) the annual fee for the current financial year of the Board; and
- (b) an additional application fee of -
 - (i) N$25, irrespective of the number of qualifications in respect of which restoration is desired, if the name of such nurse or midwife was removed from the appropriate register under section 15(1)(c) of the Act; or
 - (ii) N$30, irrespective of the number of qualifications in respect of which restoration is desired, if the name of such nurse or midwife was so removed for any other reason.

(2) A certificate of restoration substantially in the form as set out in Annexure G shall be issued to every registered nurse or registered midwife whose name has been restored to the appropriate register.

Change of name

7. (1) If the name of a registered nurse or registered midwife is changed by marriage or other process of law, he or she shall, within 30 days after such change, notify the Board in writing thereof, and the Board may require documentary or other proof of such change.

(2) A marriage certificate shall be submitted to the Board in the event of a change of name by marriage.

PART III
